MEET PRESIDENT & CEO MADELYN ALFANO!

Maria's Italian Kitchens began in the Italian quarter of Hoboken, New Jersey, where Madelyn's mother, Maria, grew up learning the recipes for real Italian food of Naples from her mother, Luisa.

In the late 60s, the Alfanos and their five young children moved to Los Angeles, where, in 1975, they converted their one-car garage into the first Maria's Italian Kitchen. In 1985, Madelyn followed in her mother's footsteps and opened the first table-service Maria's Italian Kitchen in Sherman Oaks. She went on to open 9 other locations. To this day, Maria's Italian Kitchen is proud to be a family-run operation.

"And we will welcome you like a member of our own family."
